NHK WORLD RADIO JAPAN

News, current affairs, sports, music, and radio dramas are broadcast simultaneously with the domestic channels to bring you the latest about Japan. We also help protect our listeners by delivering "Overseas Safety Information." If an earthquake stronger than magnitude 7.6 strikes the Pacific or Indian Ocean and there is a tsunami risk, warnings will be broadcast in Japanese.

About NHK

NHK (Nippon Hoso Kyokai, or Japan Broadcasting Corporation) is Japan's sole public media organization. Funded by receiving fees from TV-viewing households in Japan, NHK delivers a wide range of impartial, high-quality programs to audiences in Japan and abroad.

History

NHK's predecessor, the Tokyo Broadcasting Station, transmitted its first radio broadcast in 1925. 25 years later, Japan established NHK as the nation's public broadcaster under the terms of the Broadcast Law.

Channels

NHK operates 6 television and 3 radio channels in Japan.

General TV Educational TV BS1 BS Premium BS4K BS8K
Radio 1 Radio 2 FM

The services provide a diverse range of programming covering news, education, culture, family entertainment, and sports.

NHK operates international services through NHK WORLD-JAPAN on television, radio, and via the internet. NHK strives to promote a deeper understanding of Japan through programming that provides insight on Japanese and global current events.
